The Chairman's Award

This award is at the discretion of the Chairman, ratified by the relevant Council, and as such there is no formal application procedure. Recipients of the Award will have contributed to the arts over a sustained period of years, often with little or no personal gain. Members of the public may nominate individuals or groups for this award by writing to the County Arts Officer at the address below. The Chairman may take cognizance of this correspondence in reaching his/her decision.
