

HEAD OF EDUCATION, TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT

The Head of Education, Training and Development plays an integral part in the delivery of the Crafts Council of Ireland's strategies and objectives. The successful candidate for this senior level appointment will:

- lead a team responsible for the planning, implementation and evaluation of the Crafts Council of Ireland's Education Awareness, Skills Training and Enterprise Development strategies.
- work closely with many stakeholders including the various education sectors, craft enterprises, government departments and the public.
- have a proven career background in education and/or training and be educated to degree level. An understanding of accreditation of education and training programmes would be desirable.

The candidate will be based in Kilkenny and should be a strong people manager who is eager to develop this creative industry sector.

This position is a three year fixed term contract. A detailed job description is available on request. Candidates should send full personal, career and salary details to Nuala McGrath, HR & Corporate Services Manager, Crafts Council of Ireland, Castle Yard, Kilkenny. Tel: 056 7761804 E-mail: recruitment@ccoil.ie

For more information on the Crafts Council of Ireland visit www.ccoil.ie

The Crafts Council of Ireland is an equal opportunities employer.