

eX

present
MOTION OF THE HEART

.... the romantic heart, the spiritual heart, the anatomical heart and the aesthetic heart are all here in a wild and beautiful music theatre presentation. Baroque music sung and played on period instruments by top international artists from England, France, Germany, Holland, Ireland and the United States, costumes by one of Italy's top theatrical costume designers and direction by Eric Fraad are just some of the reasons that you shouldn't miss this.

Since its foundation in 2006 by singer Caitriona O'Leary and director/producer Eric Fraad, eX has established itself as one of Europe's most innovative and exciting early music ensembles. Based in Dublin, eX specializes in unique staged concerts and full productions that bring a new dynamic and dimension to the presentation of music from the Middle Ages through the Baroque. eX's musicians include many of the world's most celebrated and emerging early music specialists who work together with teams of renowned theatre and visual artists.

St. Peter's Church of Ireland, Drogheda

Monday 30th November 2009
8.00 p.m.

Admission €10
(to include glass of wine / soft drink)